2013 Utah Original Writing Competition

Since 1958 the annual Utah Original Writing Competition has honored Utah writers with public recognition and cash prizes. Numerous awardees selected by our nationally recognized literary jurors have continued on to significant statewide and national acclaim, bringing recognition and prestige to our state. The awards are funded in part by the Utah State Legislature and the National Endowment for the Arts. Please read through all of these guidelines which include the categories, the rules and the timeline before submitting at www.utahwritingcontest.org (Please note: Categories A-D constitute first book competitions)

RULES

- Due Date: Friday, June 28, 2013, at 5 p.m. This is a firm deadline. Late manuscripts will not be considered. Enter early to avoid technical issues. Submissions will be accepted (online only) beginning Monday, April 15, 2013 at www.utahwritingcontest.org
- First Book Categories: Categories A-D each constitutes a first book competition. Writers interested in entering one of these categories cannot have a book published or accepted for publication in that category. However, authors can have a book published or accepted for publication in a category other than the one they wish to enter.
- Submission Specifications:
  1. The judging is done “blind.” Do not include your name on your manuscripts or title page
  2. Include the title or an abbreviation of the title on the bottom, right-hand corner of each page
  3. Do not include acknowledgments or dedications in the manuscripts
  4. Manuscripts must be uploaded in MS Word, RTF or PDF format. We do not accept entries in other word processing programs, including WordPerfect.
  5. Use 12 pt. type and double-space all manuscripts
  6. Number pages, preferably at the top right-hand corner
  7. Use the exact same title for your manuscript throughout the application process, including on the manuscript title page, in the file name, and in the application itself
  8. Pseudonyms (pen names) may be used later for public posting, but legal names, spelled consistently throughout, must be used to submit to the competition
- Residency Requirement: The competition is open to all legal residents of the State of Utah. There is no age restriction.
- Entry Fees: none
- Limits on Entries: Writers are allowed to enter more than one category; however, only one entry per category per contestant is allowed. A manuscript can only be entered in one category. Portions of a larger manuscript submitted in one category cannot be submitted in a second category. First and second prize winners are not eligible to enter that category the next year. In the case of alternating categories, first and second prize winners cannot enter the exact category they placed in until at least one round of competition in that category has taken place;

however, winners are allowed to enter the alternate category in that area, or any of the other categories. (For example the 2011 winner for Young Adult Book can apply in 2012 for Juvenile Book, cannot apply for Young Adult Book when it returns in 2013 but can apply when Juvenile Book is next opened in 2014.)

- Previous Publication: Acknowledgement of previously published work or previous performance in competitions should not be included on your manuscript. However, in categories A through D, if portions of the work have been published, as permitted, indicate so when asked during the application process.
- Judges' Decisions are Final: Judges have sole and final authority in evaluation of manuscripts. If, in the opinion of the judge, no manuscript entered in a category is of sufficient quality to merit an award, none will be given. The judges are not identified until after the winners have been announced. Judges' comments will be provided for first prize and second prize only. Under no circumstances should a contestant contact a judge directly. A contestant who does contact a judge may be disqualified. Judges may announce honorable mentions (which carry no cash award) in some or all categories at their discretion.
- Winning Manuscripts to Remain on File: The manuscripts of the first and second prize winners in each category must remain on file with Utah Arts & Museums as part of its permanent collection. In the event a winning entry is later published, Arts & Museums asks that you provide a signed copy of the work.
- Rights: Authors of winning entries retain all rights of publication.
- Disqualification: Failure to follow these guidelines may result in disqualification.
